“Siskiyou County Sheriff's Employees Receive Longevity & Achievement Awards”

The Siskiyou County Sheriff Office (SCSO) recently awarded Siskiyou County “Service Awards” to a number of deserving employees. Service Awards and accompanying pins are awarded for sustained periods of service with Siskiyou County. A number of employees received 20-year service awards, including Captain Karl Houtman, Corporal Aaron Belknap, Deputy Todd Gusaas, Deputy Bob Buker, Deputy Rob Stewart, Correctional Deputy Tamara Wessel, and Fiscal Manager Tomi Jackson. Receiving 15-Year Service Awards were Sergeant Rich Watton and Civil Processor Mary Jo Culp. Receiving 10-Year Service Awards were Sergeant Jeremiah LaRue and Deputy Joe Hopper. Corporal Jennifer Zanni received a 5-Year Service Award. All recipients received custom service pins, which are authorized for wear on uniforms and civilian attire, and all received a commendation for their years of service.

According to Sheriff Jon Lopey, “These exemplary Siskiyou County Sheriff's Office workers deserve our gratitude and respect for their long-term service with the Department and Siskiyou County. All have served with distinction and have all have served our citizens and their fellow co-workers well during their respective tenures with the Department. All of these county workers and members of the Department work hard and most risk their lives and personal safety daily to protect the great citizens of Siskiyou County. Our non-sworn, professional staff are also integral and vital members of the Sheriff's Office Team – We could not do our jobs without their dedication, hard work, expertise, and daily achievements.”
