RAMBLIN' ROUND: SONGS OF THE OPEN ROAD

AT THE LIBRARY
SUNDAY, JULY 14
3:00 PM

Tim Holt, Dunsmuir musician and author, will be performing and discussing the songs of Tom Paxton, Utah Phillips, Woody Guthrie and several others, in a program that will include railroad songs, hobo songs, songs of the Western migration, and Dust Bowl ballads. He'll encourage everyone to sing along on classics like "500 Miles," "The Wabash Cannonball," and Woody Guthrie's ballad, "So Long It's Been Good To Know Ya."

Along the way he'll weave in some of the poetry of that great bard of The Open Road, Walt Whitman.

You'll learn more about the history of this restless nation, as expressed in its music and poetry, in this celebration of American travel songs.

Attendance is limited to 60 people. Admission is free.
